Definitions

1. Nomination Period: During the nomination period, potential nominees are allowed to communicate with members about the election for the sole purpose of registering nominators. Any additional campaigning for the election is a violation of the rules.
2. Campaigning: Campaigning is defined as the delivery of election-related messaging to members to secure votes. This includes posters, leaflets, classroom speaking, mainstreeting, public sign making, print campaign materials, and online campaigning. This does not have discussions with individual members.

Those who wish to file a complaint with the Chief Returning Officer must do so in writing. All complaints must include the filer's name, student number, and contact information as well as a description of the infraction. It is encouraged that complaints include photographic evidence of election rule infractions. Written complaints may be submitted to the Chief Returning Officer at:

Navi Brar
n.brar@selkirkstudents.ca

All complaints must be filed no later than 4 October 2024, at 14:00.
